PINE HILLS CLUB ADDED TO CHAIN OF BILTMORE HOTELS OVER COUNTRY

One of Five New Hotels Being Built and Added to Notable Chain—Club to Be Operated Under Bowman-Biltmore Fame

While it was generally known in certain circles Pine Hills hotel and club had been sold by the John H. Bowman firm of New Orleans, recent purchasers, to hotel interests of Bowman-Biltmore fame, official lease was held in check on the news until Saturday morning, when word came from the Development Service Corporation of New York, carrying the release.

The official promulgation carried the word that "the Pine Hills, a 200-room club hotel located on the shores of the historic Bay of St. Louis, has been taken over by the Development Service Corporation, headed by Stephen N. Bobo, of New York, and will be operated by Bowman Management Inc., of which John McE. Bowman is president."

Consummation of negotiations between the Development Service Corporation and the John H. Bowman Securities Company of New Orleans, brings the popular year-around resort under supervision of the former organization and links it with the chain of hotels over the country to be operated by Bowman Management Inc.

The Pine Hills Club is one of the best known resorts in the Mississippi and Gulf Coast region. In addition to the hotel, the properties contain two 18-hole golf courses and a golf lodge, equipped with lockers, lounge, rooms, buffet and open fire places.

The golf course is on a rolling range of hills overlooking the Bay of St. Louis, and a second course has been laid out. The club also provides bathing facilities and year-around bathing in the waters of the bay.

The club offers some of the best duck shooting in America, and the bay affords 586 varieties of fish. The club kennels are among the best known in the country, and upland shooting of quail is excellent. The territory has 75 miles of bridle paths, stables and stock and is noted for picturesque roads which link with the Old Spanish Trail.

The club has numerous projects under development, among which are a polo field and an airplane landing field with hydroplane landing facilities.

Pine Hills is extensively known as a resort and draws its clientele from all parts of the country. Acquisition by Development Service Corporation is an important link in the chain which is carrying the company's activities in the acquisition and building of hotels throughout the country.

In the opinion of Stephen N. Bobo, the acquisition of the Pine Hills Club is a notable addition to the chain of five hotels which are presently being built by Development Service Corporation and to the many more which are to be acquired or constructed in the near future.

WM. ELMORE SUICIDES AT HOME

Bay Resident, 65, Dies of Supposedly Self-Inflicted Bullet Wound

William Elmore, 65, died at King's Daughters Hospital, Gulfport, Wednesday morning about 11 o'clock, from a bullet wound in the right temple, said to have been self-inflicted Tuesday about 1 o'clock, at his home on the Monticelli place on the Old Spanish Trail, where he resided with his wife and a sister-in-law.

His wife stated that at noon Tuesday Mr. Elmore remarked to her: "This is the last dinner you will eat with me," and she stated she laughed at his remark, not in the least believing his statement. She said that she went outside to wash her hair and heard a shot and upon coming into the room found her husband lying down with the gun held at his temple.

Her cries for help summoned several people, the first being Frank Quinn, a tinner and later sheriff J. C. Jones and Chief of Police Mark Oliver and others. A physician called in stated that the man had but a few hours to live. In a short time after the shooting Mr. Elmore was taken to the hospital at Gulfport where an operation was performed about 8 o'clock, which produced the bullet from under his left eye, death coming Wednesday morning. Interment was Wednesday afternoon at Gulfport.

Mr. Elmore was born in Georgia and had resided here for a number of years with his wife to whom he had been married forty years. He was an electrician and was known about town as "Bill." He had the reputation of being irregularly. He was employed at the Monticelli place and worked until Saturday night.

SUCCESSFUL FAIR HELD AT LEETOWN

Community Fair Wednesday Is Well Attended—Fairs at Sellers and Flat Top

A very successful community fair was held at Leetown school Wednesday under the direction of the community organization and with Miss Mayme O'Dom in charge of women's and girls' work.

Practically every resident of the Caesar, Catahoula and Leetown communities were present at the fair and many citizens of other communities including a large delegation of business men from Picayune. The excellent music for the day was furnished by the band from St. Stanislaus College which went out Wednesday accompanied by Brother Oliver, of the college, and was joined in the afternoon by Brother Peter, president of the college. The entire fair assemblage was delighted with the music these college boys rendered and were high in their praise of their courtesy to play and the college's kindness in permitting them to attend the fair. Luther Lee and James Restor motored to the Bay for the band boys.

The fair opened with a parade from the intersection of the Caesar road passing beyond the school building, this parade led by Otto Restor carrying the community organization banner and participated in by residents of Caesar, Catahoula and Leetown communities with various women's and girls' clubs carrying their individual banners.

The grounds had been beautifully decorated with many flags, loaned for the occasion by Archie Surcouf of Bay St. Louis. Several speakers addressed the assemblage during the day. At noon the women had prepared dinner for the band boys, the speakers and judges while booths for the sale of various "eats" were operated by the organization and were said to have done a "flourishing business."

The games and contests in which many participated were in charge of Prof. F. B. Landrum of Catahoula school.

The exhibits of all types of home and farm activities, produce and work which were on display within the fair grounds were excellent, said by many to have been finer than any ever yet shown by this community, and the judges' E. L. Anderson from the experiment station at Pontcharville and Miss Ethel Atkinson, home demonstration agent of Wayne county, expressed themselves as delighted to judge such fine exhibits. Prize winners will be announced later.

Dr. F. Z. Goss, member of the board of supervisors, was present with his wife and was much pleased with this community fair.

Two other community fairs are being held in Hancock county this week, one at Sellers school being in progress Friday and that at Flat Top school Saturday. Interesting programs have been planned for each. At the close of the community fairs the exhibits will be arranged in community exhibits for the Mississippi Coast Fair at Gulfport next week.

GROUND IS BROKEN FOR NEW DEPOT

Lionel F. Favret, Contractor, Begins Work Monday on $50,000 L. & N. Station

Ground was broken Monday morning on the new L. & N. station at Bay St. Louis, which was ordered some time ago to replace the former station which burned. Lionel F. Favret of New Orleans, has secured the general contract for the work, this contract having been let some ten days ago at Louisville, Ky. The general contract will total about $45,000 and the cost of the new station and electrical work have not yet been let by the L. & N., but it is estimated these contracts will cost between $6,000 and $7,000, thus bringing the total cost of the new station well above $50,000, exclusive of the furnishings.

The plans call for a Spanish mission stucco building of two stories. It is placed slightly east of the former station site and some distance back from the tracks. Work on the excavation which is being made for the foundation is occupying a large force of workmen this week.

H. Boitmann of New Orleans is superintendent of the job and Albert Andignae is his assistant. They plan to use local labor as far as possible for all of the job. Mr. Favret, the general contractor whose office is 802 Louisiana building, New Orleans, has been in the contracting business for twenty years and has many fine buildings to his credit as a successful builder, one of the most recent outside New Orleans being the convent at Lafayette, and this station is the first this contractor has done for the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

CHILD OPERATED ON
Little five-year-old Louise Harvey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Harvey, underwent a painful operation in the early Saturday morning. Drs. Allen and J. C. Buckley, performing the operation. She is reported as doing nicely.

WESTERN UNION OFFICE IN NEW LOCATION HERE

Telegraph Station Moved to New Location On North Front Street

The Western Union office was moved Saturday of last week to its new location in the recently completed stucco building on North Front street owned by C. C. McDonald, and built purposely for use of the telegraph office. The small building which is adjacent to the office occupied by Grady Perkins real estate office, is adequately suited to the telegraph office. This new building is pleasantly tinted with cream walls and white ceiling and stained floors. In the very near future complete new furniture will be placed in the office.

Miss Lellen Davis, the manager of the local office who has been in charge here since August, is quite pleased with the more centrally located office. She announces that the office will be open for the receipt and delivery of messages over the wire daily from 8 to 12 o'clock in the morning and from 1:30 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and on Sunday from 9 to 10 o'clock in the morning and 5 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

J. W. Rankin of Atlanta, is here making the installations of all wires and connections in the new office.

STATION AT GULFPORT IS RAISED

Radio Broadcasting Station WGCM Receives New Power—Greater Distance

Bay radio fans have been delighted with the announcement made through the press and over the radio that the only Coast broadcasting station, WGCM, maintained at Gulfport by the Gulf Coast Music Store, has received a new assignment of power which means that greater distance will be reached by the programs sent out. The notification came the latter part of last week when the Federal Radio Commission notified J. C. Richard and E. J. Staples of the Gulf Coast Music Company that the radio frequency had been changed from 1370 kilocycles to 1210 and that its wattage had been raised from 15 watts to 100 watts. This will raise the wave length of the local station.

It is understood that such a change as granted in the case of the Coast station only comes to those stations which have been successfully operated.

Messrs. Richard and Staples state that the station will be improved in the near future and that work on the construction of new aerials will begin and within 30 days the station will be operating under its new power.

Bay St. Louis and Waveland merchants are hooping for this increased power to the Coast station and added method of further advertising the Coast and its possibilities. The branch store of the Gulf Coast Music Company which is at Bay St. Louis is handling a number of radios and the local store is pleased with the better station, believing that anything that furthers radio broadcasting will likewise popularize the radio and its use.

SEVEN FROM BAY ATTEND MEETING OF RED CROSS

Regional Conference, Gulfport, Proves Interesting to Bay Delegates

Seven Bay St. Louis residents attended the regional conference of the South Mississippi American Red Cross workers and secretaries held Monday at the Hotel Arkham, Gulfport, reporting an interesting and helpful session. Those going from the Bay included Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, Mrs. J. C. Buckley, Mrs. M. D. Leche, Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, Miss Elsie Mauffray and Jos. O. Mauffray.

The morning session was presided over by B. C. Bowen and the afternoon session by Frank Kroulik, and the main talks were given by Everett Dix, of the national headquarters of the Red Cross, from Washington. The most pleasant feature of the meeting were the round table discussions of problems affecting the individual organizations.

George R. Rea made a report at the meeting of the Red Cross work in Bay St. Louis stating that though there is no organized chapter here yet all appeals of the Red Cross are promptly met by local members and the hope was expressed that in the near future a chapter will be duly constituted here.

SUPERVISOR VISITS.

Miss Dora Guice, elementary school supervisor of the rural schools of Harrison county was a week-end visitor to the Bay, visiting Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Harvey. Bay residents will be interested to know that Miss Guice is the granddaughter of the Rev. George Guice, Methodist minister who was killed in Bay St. Louis thirteen years ago by train.

Mississippi Coast Fair will open at the fair grounds at Gulfport Tuesday of next week and continue through Saturday, five days of what promises to be the best fair ever held on the Coast, judging from the many exhibits of every type and character for which space has already been secured, Manager A. OPENS DRAMATIC ART CLASSES IN BAY ST. LOUIS

Mrs. Ethel Wowell (Val) Yates Is Instructor In Expression-Spoken English

The people of Bay St. Louis who are interested in English speech as students of expression, declamation for the public platform or the highest scholastic achievement are delighted to know that Mrs. Val Yates, the former Miss Ethel Powell, has opened a studio of speech at her home at 105 Carroll avenue, and is at present conducting a pleasant class. Mrs. Yates won her professional position as impersonator and teacher of speech through several years of intensive training and presentation. Preceding her marriage she taught here in Bay St. Louis and also at King's Daughters Hospital and thus has many friends in the former students who are delighted to have the opportunity of studying under her efficient direction. She came here as a teacher from two successful terms as director of the expression department of Gulf Park College.

Mrs. Yates is a graduate of the Boston School of Expression and a graduate pupil of Leland T. Powers of Boston. She studied at Liberty Junior College and Judson College before coming to Boston. She has had extensive experience as an impersonator while teaching dramatic art in Boston and later concert and chautauqua tours during which she appeared throughout the country. She has taught as director of dramatic art work at Hardin College, Mexico, Mo.; Albany, Ala.; public schools, and Gulf Park College and has taught private work in her studio at Boston, Albany, Ala., and Gulfport.

"Street Angel" A Hit, Coming to A. & G.

"Street Angel," the latest Fox film featuring the charming and popular team of screen players, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, is the super-feature coming to Bay St. Louis at the A. & G. Theater this Sunday and Monday evenings. One gropes for superlatives strong enough to sing the praises of this production, so favorably does it impress the audience. The love story of Angela and Gino, played by Miss Gaynor and Mr. Farrell is just as human and appealing as that of Chico and Diane in "7th Heaven," in which these players made their first great success together. They enthrall the audience with their simple and sincere manner of playing at love amid the quaint scenes of Naples.

has been under a microscope for more than a quarter of a century.Vainly political adversaries have searched for flaws.
They have magnified his personal habits; have entered the sanctity of his home; have exploited his religious ideals; have read and re-read volume upon volumes of legislative records, and consistently with the same rehas revealed no spots. Always, has he emerged from Thrilled at the opportunities of this Democratic coun-the pursuit of strange gods. Let us use enough common sense to understand the exact place of Bay St.

Louis in the scheme of present things.Bay St. Louis will not become as large as New York or London. If it does the time is so far in the future that there is no gain to be obtained by spending our time in such dreaming. Bay St. Louis will, we may be sure, continue to have a reasonable, steady growth, consistent with the growth as such this Gulf Coast is experiencing and justly entitled to by reason of its climate, location and combined advantages not to be found elsewhere, and not forgetting the agricultural phase.Boom towns are not to be envied. With great growth comes various problems, suddenly larger than desired, and very often, unsolved. Moreover, boom towns have an unpleasant manner of exploding with a scattering of wreckage over considerable territory. We have had boom realty values to our undoing.The Sea Coast Echo yields to no one in faith in Bay St. Louis. It is the servant of Bay St. Louis and Hancock county, but it hopes to be a wise, and not a foolish, one. Whenever The Echo speaks about Bay St.
Louis it tries to be honest and sincere. It does not see a new metropolis of the world in crystal here. Our growth continues unabated. It is sure. Let us leave the matter of size alone. That will come with more paved streets, now that our beach boulevards are to be completed from one extreme end to the other; better looking and better kept houses, including newer and modern ones, more front lawns and better gardens with less front gates on broken hinges and back yards that smell to heaven because the local board of health might not be on its job, or the owner of the premises doesn't give a rap, and lacks sense of civic decency.A good rule for men in life is to attend to private business, letting other people's affairs alone. The same advice applies to cities. Bay St. Louis is not in competition with its neighboring towns and cities. It is complimentary to them, and all are working for the upbuilding and improvement of this state. Each can, and should, make a contribution to the common good.No city becomes great through size. Many of them have become infamous because of the terrifying problems that follow bigness. The chief justification of cities and towns is the convenience that accrues to men and women and children in their fight for better lives.
That is the cause of the congregations of mankind that gather into urban settlements. All cities and towns should keep this cause in mind.The chief goal for citizens of Bay St. Louis should be the general improvement of our citizens, the betterment of their means of living, the growth of their culture and the development of their souls. It takes many contributing factors to attain the greatest combined good in all of these things. Economic phases are important, but they do not overwhelm others, and it is a mistake to assume that the economic growth of Bay St. Louis is the only growth. Let us keep our balance in an age that worships mere size. In the long run it will be worth while.PINE HILLS BILTMORE CLUB.No announcement of recent time carries so much significance to this immediate section as that coming from New York City, carrying the intelligence of acquisition of Pine Hills Hotel and Club by the Biltmore financial interest and the Bowman world-famous hotel management.The story, as released from headquarters in the metropolis and sent direct to The Sea Coast Echo among other newspapers, appears in part elsewhere in this issue of the paper, and will be read with more than passing interest.Acquisition of this property by the interests herein named is an outstanding asset to the Coast and will redound to the benefit of this immediate Bay St. Louis section.Two operating phases of the place will continue, as a high class hotel, and all club privileges to members of Pine Hills Club which has been reorganized, will continue in effect.We know of no better feature, story for the paper than this one and coming at a time when it is significant in more ways than one.HEALTH WORK IN SCHOOLS.School health work will be celebrated in some states on November first. Regardless of the date set this is an important work, and the schools of Hancock County should not neglect it.The examination of school children is very often the means of arresting conditions that, if unchecked, will mean a hopeless life for the child. Little ills, allowed to grow, become big ills, but attended to, they disappear.In Hancock County there is no danger little ills will become big ones from the source of failure to early detect. The health unit, and recently voted to be retained takes care of this and it was not in the least surprising Parent-Teachers' Association of this city and in other portions of the country took such an emphatic position and worked accordingly.No child can do the best work mentally without being in good physical condition. The fact that few parents have their children systematically and periodically examined by physicians makes the school examinations more important.A GREAT AERIAL JOURNEY.The successful flight of the Graf Zeppelin from Germany to the United States set no speed record even for dirigibles, but, for the first time such an airship, planned as a passenger and freight carrier, negotiated the long distance. This is the epoch making importance of the flight.The future of the airship, some assert, lies on the ocean. Already ships larger than the German liner are under construction in England. These will carry one hundred instead of twenty passengers. The American Navy is about to begin two war liners that will be larger than the British ships. Thus is progress under way among the Zeppelins.LIFE BEATS FICTION.There are stern novelists who write stark stuff. They seek realism. Apparently, whatever is bizarre, whatever is perverted, goes with them. That some people say their literature is imaginary does not ruffle them. They know better. They read such items as that from Missouri last week, wherein it is reported that a woman, a neighborhood nurse, admitted that she poisoned people.
It is recalled that fourteen people died suddenly while being nursed by her. The bodies of three, exhumed, showed the presence of poison. Can even a novelist explain the workings of a mind that engineers such detestable depravity?Just to show you how the world moves, the man who was complaining last winter that summer never would arrive is now put out because it is staying so long.This Week.*Atheism Via Radio.

The American Association for the advancement of Atheism demands a high powered radio station in New York City and does not get it, although the easiest way to make an atheist ridiculous is to let him talk.
It is hard to understand how anybody could talk atheism, knowing that his voice propelled by a power beyond comprehension, travels around the world through the mysterious ether.Atheists, young ones, especially might meditate on one of Bacon's collected apothegms.Simonides, being asked of Hiero, "what he thought of God," asked a seven night's time to consider of it; and at the seven nights' end he asked a fortnight's time, at the fortnight's end, a month.At which Hiero marvelling, Simonides answered, "that the longer he thought upon the matter the more difficult he found it."The more glibly you answer King Hiero's question the less you know.Congratulations to Secretary Wilbur, who has ordered for our navy two dirigibles that will be the biggest in the world.They will be three times as big as the Los Angeles, one third bigger than the German giant Count Zeppelin and each will carry, under the great gas bag, five airplanes for scouting.The Goodyear Zeppelin Corporation will build them and friendly nations abroad are informed that we do not intend to be taken by surprise.A fleet of such dirigibles, each carrying fifty tons of explosives and modern war gas unable to unleash one hundred fast destructive planes, could leave with Uncle Sam's commitments a visiting card in Europe or Asia that would not soon be forgotten.We make war on no nation, but we should be ready and able to fill with subsequent regret anyone attacking us.William W. Breck, retired business man, fell dead while playing golf.
He was sixty-four years old.At sixty-four, make no violent effort, unless a good doctor has pronounced your heart "fool proof."Golf is good for old men that play, as they should, talking, laughing, walking slowly. It's dangerous for those that strain and strive to better their game.Remember, old gentlemen, that whether you go around in 130 or 103, the cosmos will roll on, just the same.
Treat an old head as you would a delicate vase, not as you would treat an old rubber boot.Americans are not going backward, PHYSICALLY, at least. Girls are taller and stronger than ever. And among 100 candidates reporting for freshmen crew practice at Cornell yesterday, 48 were 6 feet tall; a good sign.A well balanced body, of good size, about 6 feet tall, is the right sort.
In old days a Napoleon had to be short. If he had been a little taller he would have been killed by the first of the bullets that went an inch above his head.No wonder American boys and girls grow. The nation's food bill is TWENTY-THREE THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS.Forty-seven thousand, nine hundred and eighty-five factories of different kinds turn out food products, assisted by 6,448,366 farmers. And 22 per cent of the food plants produce nine-tenths of the food products.
Shiver at that, if you dread monopoly.It is a rich country that can afford to eat twenty-three billions worth of food in a year. Much of it, unfortunately, is wasted.This country, after all its spending for food, clothing and other necessaries, has a "social surplus" of TEN THOUSAND MILLION DOL-LARS, more than the country needs for its living. That is what builds up values, savings bank accounts and Wall Street prices.Sample Ballot For you might want the dictionary. Some people would want the Bible. If you were limited to one piece of furniture in the house your choice would be the piano.The piano is easily the most important instrument in the world.It is the greatest common denominator of all musical instruments.

Most music that is written for an orchestra or a band, a saxophone or the human voice is reducible to a piano score, and usually is first composed on the piano.There is no doubt about music being the most cultural of studies. It connects rhythm and harmony, two things that are essential in all departments of human activity. Rhythm is necessary even in the motion pictures, and you must have a sense of harmony if you are going to be an orator, a painter or a sculptor.The piano is the best door to the knowledge of music. Almost everybody enters into the field of music by that door.The piano is the heart of the home.
About it naturally groups all the family. A silent house is essentially a desolate one.The piano is the life of every social gathering.If anyone can play the piano, even manage so-so with accompaniments, a group gathers around him and the house is enlivened by the voices of the young, or partners are chosen for dancing.Almost every child can learn music if he is taught young enough. Modern methods of instruction are so simple that even the dullest can understand.It is a deprivation for any young child not to know the piano.
It is the best form of self-expression. As Thomas Moore's Anacreon-tic runs:"Music! Oh how faint, how weak, Language fades before thy spell!
Oh, why should passion ever speak, When thou canst breathe her soul so well?"Our moments of greatest delight, perhaps, are our moments of self-expression. Nothing is better suited to fully set forth our phase of emotion than the piano.No substitute will do. It is not enough to play the harp or the violin without a basic acquaintance with the piano.Of course, there is pleasure in attending concerts, or listening to band music, or singing, but no pleasure is so full and so profitable, withal, as the joy we get in making our own music. Again I say that if you are to buy only one piece of furniture for your home, let it be a piano.Little Echoes.Zeppelin safe at Lakehurst after

SAILOR JOHNSTON WINS HARD SCRAP FROM YOUNG MORAN

Bobby Fay Wins by Knockout in Semi-Final—Billy Seth Loses Decision to Young Burgeout

The feature bout, a ten-rounder between Sailor Johnston of New Orleans and Young (Norman) Moran of Pass Christian, was one of the hardest fought scraps ever seen in the new arena.

From the opening bell both boys went at it hammer and tongs, landing terrific rights and lefts to the head and body until the seventh when Moran sunk a left hook into Johnston's stomach, which, at first, looked like a knock-out, but just as the referee was about to count ten, Johnston jumped to his feet and was a terrier opponent like a wild man.

Many fans claimed that Johnston did not get up until after the count of ten—whether this is true or not, we don't really know, but Johnston came back and fought cautiously to win the remaining rounds.

One judge called the fight a draw, the other judge at the referee gave it to Johnston, giving him six rounds and Moran four.

Bobby Fay Wins

In the semi-windup, Bobby Fay, of Bay St. Louis, knocked out Young (Vic) Moran of New Orleans, in the third round of a scheduled six-round bout.

This fight was good while it lasted until the third when Bobby shot a terrific right cross that knocked Moran on the point of the chin and sent him down for the count.

This was Bobby Fay's fourth fight of his career, and his first time in the sixth round class. He has improved a great deal and should make a good little scrapper if he is not rushed out of his class in too big a hurry.

Billy Seth, Loses Decision

Billy Seth, another Bay youngster lost a decision to Young Burgeout of Pass Christian in the four round preliminary. This was a good scrap and in the opinion of many, should have been a draw, although a knockdown in the third counted a lot against Seth, and really gave the pass lad an edge.

Monko Wins on Foul

Kid Evolution, better known as Monko, won on a foul in the opening four-rounder from Kid Gilb. It, Gilb, knocked Monko down with a right to the jaw and then wanted to beat him while he was down.

Crowd Very Poor

Judging from the small number of fans who witnessed the American Legion's Boxing exhibition Wednesday night, the prospects for the continuation of boxing during the winter months look rather discouraging. Unless the local Legion can secure a closed-in place for use as their arena during the winter months, it will be useless for them to continue the outdoor exhibitions.

Heitzmann Seeks Return Match with Archie Lewis

On last Friday night Roger Heitzmann, local fighter, was stopped by Archie Lewis of New Orleans at the Coliseum Arena, in the first round of their scheduled six-round scrap, by what seemed to be a lucky punch, as Heitzmann had Lewis practically out when Lewis landed the knockout blow.

Heitzmann now seeks a return match. The local promoter offered Lewis' manager, Red Walsh, a return fight here, but he refused on the ground that there was too much weight against his man. It can't be the weight that makes Lewis refuse because there was only a pound and a half difference at ringside that night.

Heitzmann says he stands ready to meet Lewis any time, any place, and on any financial terms whatsoever, as he is confident he can beat Lewis.

Radio Notes

Election returns will be broadcast on the night of November 6th by a transcontinental chain of stations. The National Broadcasting Company has already announced that bulletins will be furnished by its stations by the Associated Press, the United Press Association, and the International News Service. Political experts will be in charge of the dissemination and presentation of the reports. The announcement says that only news which is indicative of the results will be broadcast in a form that is to be readily understandable.

BAY ST. LOUIS SAINTS LOSE GAME WITH JESUITS AT NOBY MARGIN 1 POINT

Did Not Win But Played Best Game of Season—Locals Enter Second Half With Score 12-1—Entitled To All Credit Possible

The Rock-a-chaws lost a close game to the Jesuit Blue Jays, at Loyola stadium last Sunday afternoon, by a score of 19 to 18.

The Jays had the Rocks up against a wall at the end of the first half, as the score stood 12 to 0 in favor of the Jesuits. But the Rock-a-chaws showed those Blue Jays that they were not done for yet by a long shot. In the second half Harris kicked off to Toca who carried the ball back to the Stanislaus 41 yard line. After trying a buck which failed, the Rock-a-chaws gave Genard the ball, and he carried it over left tackle, 49 yards for a touchdown.

On the next kick-off, Jesuits to Stanislaus, Cassidy returned the ball to the Rocks' forty yard line. Daigle then threw Glover for a six yard loss and Genard failed to gain over tackle. Toca punted to Jesuits' 35 yard line. Daigle was thrown for a two yard loss by Bernard Blaise, and after a buck failed, Harris punted the ball to Stanislaus' 40-yard line.

From this line, in a series of bucks, Genard, Cavalier, Glover and Toca brought the ball over for another touchdown.

Then the third quarter ended with the score standing 12 to 12. Early in the fourth quarter Stanislaus marched down the field to five Blue Jays' 34-yard line, and a pass from Toca to Cavalier, who ran 28 yards for another touchdown, brought the score 18 to 12 in favor of the Rocks.

The game was played on even terms, first the Rocks had possession of the ball and then the Jesuits had it. There were four minutes to play. The Rocks kicked off to the Jays after having failed to make the extra point on a drop kick.

Daigle received the ball on the Jesuits 35-yard line and hit end for three yards. Then he rounded the end for 19 yards more. In the next play Daigle hauled a six yard pass to White who ran three yards. Encouraged by the completion of this pass Daigle threw another one to L. Mock, 18 yards from the line of scrimmage and after dodging Stanislaus defenders this Blue Jay dashed 15 yards for a touchdown. In a fake play the Jesuits made the extra point, that won the game for them.

The Rock-a-chaws lost that game as far as points go, but any fair critic who saw the game, would not hesitate to say that Stanislaus well outplayed Jesuits both as a whole and man for man. Stanislaus made 12 firstdowns to Jesuits 6.

Genard, Toca, Seafide, Leger and Cavalier played star ball for Stanislaus while Daigle was the backbone of the Blue Jays.

"Our team was made in the second half of that game," remarked Brother Peter after it was all over. "It is a team that Stanislaus as well as Bay Saint Louis can be proud of. For any team that could go on the field in the second half, with the score standing 12 to 0 against it as it did against our fellows and they bring that score up to 18 to 12 in their own favor in less than three quarters of the next half, is a team that deserves all the credit that can possibly be bestowed upon it."

COMMENT ON SPORTS

(By Echo Staff Writer)

Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators, determined to replace Buckley Harris as Manager, made a master stroke with the fans of Washington and the country at large by securing Walter Johnson, who has been signed to a three year contract to pilot the Senators. Both seem to be well pleased with the prospects. Johnson declared that his "wing" seemed as strong as ever but he did not believe he will use it again for this team.

After the last World Series there will not be many old timers to meet you with the argument that the greatest team of all times was the Old Time Orioles of Baltimore. The unprecedented feat of the Yankees in winning two World Series without losing a game stamps Huggins' outfit as a super-team. When going right it seems to have power enough to strangle all opposition.

George Morarity, manager of the Detroit team for the past two years, has resigned after the Tigers finished fourth and sixth under his leadership. The Detroit team has been somewhat of a disappointment, not only to its local supporters but to fans generally. While the poor playing was blamed upon the team as a whole in many places, the owners of the Tigers decided to make a change.

The most valuable playing in the American League during the past season, according to a committee of baseball writers, was Gordon (Mickey) Cochrane, catcher for the Athletics. While Cochrane's hitting was below 300, his throwing arm and his ability to tag runners at the plate gave him first place. Previous winners, of course, are not eligible in the competition and this rule barred Sisler, Ruth, Johnson, Peckinpaugh, Burns and Gehrig, the aggregation of the four highest players gave Cochrane 53 points, Henry Manush, St. Louis, 51, Joe Judge, Washington, 27, Tony Lazzeri, New York, 27. Only four pitchers were mentioned among the 25 players included in the voting. Hoyt of New York received 8 points, Ed Morris, of Boston, 4; Owen Carroll, of Detroit, 3; and Ted Lyons, of Chicago, 2 points.

The rumor has been spread abroad that Rogers Hornsby, the Boston manager will appear in the Chicago lineup next year. The club officials refused to comment on the trade except to admit that they would like to have Rogers. It is said that Boston is facing a tight field, and was willing to sell its star infielder, and that when the subject of price came up for discussion, the Braves asked $250,000 and two or three players.

JUNIORS TIE PINE STREET SUNDAY 6-6

Stanislaus Junior Football Aggregation Ties N.O. Eleven in Good Game

While the St. Stanislaus varsity battled the Jesuits Blue Jays in New Orleans at the Loyola stadium Sunday, the St. Stanislaus Juniors played a 6-6 tie with the strong Pine Street Tigers of New Orleans.

In the second quarter the spectators were given a thrill when Ledig of the Tigers ran forty yards on an end run before he was stopped. It was a closely contested game, neither team scoring until the 4th quarter. Up to that time it was a punting battle between Boh of the Juniors and Ledig of the Tigers.

Then in the 4th quarter on a fake pass Ledig skirted right end for 15 yards and scored the first touchdown of the game. A pass was tried for the extra point but it was incomplete.

With only three minutes to play the Juniors began an aerial attack. A pass from Carlotta to Posner gained 15 yards. One to Garcia netted 6 yards. Asather to Ducasa, the speedy Rockachaw end, was good for 12 yards.

On a no-signal play Carlotta went around end for a touchdown as the game ended. The try for placement kick by Carlotta was blocked.

PAN-AM Motor Oil gives unfailing lubrication to your car because it is refined from pure paraffin-base crudes.

As you know, nature has endowed this type of petroleum with exceptional qualities. It produces the toughest, sturdiest motor oil in the world. No other kinds can equal paraffin-base oils in safety and long wear.

Moreover, Pan-Am Motor Oil is refined with unusual care. Its qualities are similar in all respects to those set up by the leading automotive engineers as the ideal lubricant for modern motors.

Fill up, today, at the first Pan-Am station you see. Every dealer has a scientifically prepared chart showing just the right grade of this safe motor oil to protect your car.

The dining table was beautifully laid with its handsome new crystal dinner service in the popular new shade of turquoise blue, and its beautiful new table silver, both anniversary gifts from Mr. Rea to his wife and used for the first time Saturday night. The central adornment of the table was a low bowl from the crystal service which was dressed with trailing sprays of rose of montana and four blue tapers were effectively placed about the flowers. The interior of the hospitable and inviting home was decorated with cut flowers and house ferns, profusely and effectively yet with the utmost taste. A feature of the beautiful decorations was the use of artificial flowers, the handsomely made to such perfection as to set near or alongside natural roses, and only by the touch was one able to discern between the two kinds. A trellis-like wall separated the beautiful new solarium and the reception room with its inviting open fireplace was covered with natural rose vines and artificial rosebuds and roses of different sizes and effects. The result was most artistic and fetching.

DEAR CUSTOMER:

At our store the other day we heard this conversation:
FIRST WIFE: "Your husband told my husband he never got any home cooking."

SECOND DITTO: Why, the idea! It's lucky I've saved the labels to prove otherwise!

The husband referred to is not the only man who craves home cooked dinners. We think that all husbands would appreciate Premium Ham next Sunday.

From a half ham you may have two royal breakfasts—two excellent roast dinners—and two cold suppers or luncheons—with very little work and at a very reasonable cost.

Won't you permit us to send you either a small Swift's PREMIUM Ham, or half of one? We will greatly appreciate your placing an order over the telephone or when in our store. Free Recipes.

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR WILL?

There was a time when the making of a will was a death-bed affair. But not now.

Men realize that if they want their estate conserved and distributed as they direct they should make their will when their health is good and make our TRUST DEPARTMENT their executors.

You can readily see the force of this. Men who are trained in the work of handling business, property and securities will get the most out of the estate and we are under heavy bonds to account for every dollar.

Loses Skiff.

Ben Messie who resides at 111 Felicity street, and who is engaged in fishing as a business, suffered the misfortune to have his skiff stolen Thursday of last week. Mr. Messie who had tied up his skiff in the Bay at the foot of Felicity street among some six other skiffs, went down to the Bay about 2 o'clock Thursday morning to go out for his usual morning's fishing and found that his skiff had disappeared. Continued search for it has failed to locate the skiff. It is described as slate colored with red moulding, 16 feet 2 inches long and contained two fishing canes, three oars, lines and hooks and had 600 shrimp in the well ready for use in fishing. If anyone can give any information as to the location of this skiff it will be much appreciated by Mr. Messie who is dependent upon the use of the skiff for his living and that of his family.
